Ellen De Grise graduated in 2021 from AP University College with a Professional Bachelor's degree in Legal Practice. She then enrolled in the bridging programme in Law at the University of Antwerp, where she obtained her Master of Laws in September 2025.

During her master's studies, she focused on criminal law (major) and civil law (minor).

In October 2025, Ellen was admitted to the Bar of Antwerp and began her traineeship at our firm under the supervision of Mr. Peter Henriksen.

Ellen mainly specialises in commercial and distribution law, insolvency law, and company law. She also represents her clients in construction and building-related disputes.

Her client base consists primarily of private sector companies.
