Pauline graduated in 2021 with a Master of Laws from the VUB. After her studies, she gained experience in the public sector, including at the Federal Public Service of Justice, where she was able to further develop her legal expertise in an administrative and policy-oriented context.

In 2025, she made the transition to the legal profession and started her traineeship at our firm.

She is currently completing a postgraduate Master's in Company Law, further strengthening her expertise in corporate and commercial law.

Her practice focuses primarily on corporate and commercial law, contract law, mergers and acquisitions (M&A), and dispute resolution in these areas. She provides legal assistance to companies and individuals, both in an advisory capacity and in litigation.
